Job Search Resources for People with Disabilities

Physical or mental differences will not stop you from finding meaningful, satisfying careers. The following resources can help you learn where to find accommodating employers or organizations and connect you to more professional opportunities.

Career Library Resources:
- RD.28 Computer and web resources for people with disabilities / Alliance for Technology Access
- RD.13a & b Ferguson career resource guide for people with disabilities / Ferguson Publishers
- RD.09 Job search handbook for people with disabilities / Daniel J. Ryan
- RD.15 Job-hunting for the so-called handicapped or people who have disabilities / Richard Nelson Bolles
- RD.11 Living well with a hidden disability: transcending doubt and shame and reclaiming your life / Stacy Taylor
- RD.02 Successful job search strategies for the disabled: understanding the ADA / Jeffrey G. Allen

Online Resources:
- Penn State’s Office for Disability Services - http://www.equity.psu.edu/ods/
- Penn State University Library Services for Persons with Disabilities - http://libraries.psu.edu/psul/disabilities.html
- We Connect Now - http://weconnectnow.wordpress.com/
- QuintCareers resources - http://www.quintcareers.com/disabled_career_resources.html
- AAS science internships - http://ehnweb.aaas.org/entrypoint/
- Job Accommodation Network (JAN) - http://askjan.org/