Working Abroad Resources

In addition to the Directory of Foreign Firms Operating in the US and Directory of American Firms Operating Abroad, there are many other resources available to students who want a summer experience or career outside of the US.

A Sampling of Books in the Career Services Library:
- Work Your Way Around the World 15D.23
- Alternatives to the Peace Corps 15D.24
- Jobs and Careers Abroad 15D.16
- Teaching English Overseas 15D.17
- The Back Door Guide to Short-Term Job Adventures IN.18
- The Global Resume and CV Guide RL.03
- Vault Guide to International Careers 15D.07

Some Books Available in PSU Libraries:
- GenXpat: The Young Professional's Guide To Making A Successful Life Abroad—HF5549.5.R47M345 2005

Going Global is the Premiere Web site for the International Job or Internship Search:
- Learn accurate and up-to-date country-specific information on hot industries, in-demand careers, visa restrictions, and more from Going Global's team of in-country experts
- International Students will want to spend time on H1B Plus, Going Global's database of US visa-sponsoring employers
- Discover employment information for major US cities and states, including internship and job postings
- Access the site by logging in with your PSU userID and password: https://www.sa.psu.edu/career/GoingGlobal/Global.shtml

Other Online Information and Top Employers:
- The Riley Guide's (created by a librarian who scours the internet for good job info so we don’t have to) extensive International Jobs page: http://rileyguide.com/internat.html
- iAgora offers internship & entry-level job information: http://www.iagora.com/
- Transitions Abroad offers not only internship and full-time job listing, but also sound advice on making a successful international move: http://www.transitionsabroad.com/
- Dave’s ESL Café is filled with information and job links for teaching English abroad: http://www.daveseslcafe.com/
- Intern Abroad offers study abroad, internships and short-term job opportunities: http://www.internabroad.com
- IASTE (International Association for the Exchange of Students for Technical Experience) offers experiences abroad for technical students: http://www.iaesteunitedstates.org/
- US State Department has many opportunities to work abroad in diplomacy, law and social development: http://www.state.gov/careers/
- United Nations with 192 member states, there are almost as many ways to serve: http://www.un.org/english/