Paul Robeson Cultural Center’s

1st Annual Golf Tournament for Student Engagement

Saturday, June 4, 2016
Mt. View Golf Course

The Paul Robeson Cultural Center (PRCC) is inviting you to join us for a rewarding and fun event as we seek to raise much needed funding for student engagement opportunities. The PRCC provides not only a home away from home but a safe space environment for students. We also seek to provide students with co-curricular activities that they otherwise would not be exposed to or have the financial means to afford. These experiences are not currently funded through Penn State. The monies raised by this tournament will greatly enhance the students’ experiences at Penn State. These include: Cultural Awareness Trips, Professional Development Conferences, Social Justice Retreats, and Identity Development workshops.
