FALL 2017 Schedule of Adult
ART CLASSES

SERVING PENN STATE STUDENTS, STAFF AND FACULTY
An outreach program of the Penn State Student Activities, a unit of Student Affairs

University Park Campus
SESSION 1 Classes begin the week of September 11, 2017
SESSION 2 Classes begin the week of October 23, 2017

Classes are partially funded by your Student Initiated Fee and are offered at reduced fees to Penn State students with a valid and current Penn State Student ID! Class fees for Penn State students may vary from semester to semester depending upon allocated funds.

• Classes and workshops are instructed by Penn State art and art education majors and local professional artists.
• Classes and workshops are non-credit and held in the Ritenour Building or HUB-Robeson Center. Adult classes are designed for Penn State college aged students and older, as well as Penn State Faculty and Staff.
• Depending on the class, students may be responsible for purchasing some of their own materials. Some materials will be provided. Thanks for keeping class fees low!
• The Center for Arts & Crafts (CFAC) program is a Penn State Student Activities program operated by Penn State students; serving students and the Penn State community seven days a week!
• Check out LateNight PennState Creative Crafts! Every Friday and Saturday night during the fall and spring semester you can create a different craft each week! The program is held on the ground floor of the HUB-Robeson Center from 9:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. A valid Penn State Student ID is required to participate.

History:
The Center for Arts and Crafts (CFAC) has a long history of providing an artistic outlet for Penn State students, staff and faculty. It all began in the 1970s and was located on the third floor of the Hetzel Union Building (HUB). Approximately 40 years later, the Center for Arts and Crafts is now located in the basement level of the Ritenour Building and the Ceramics Studio is located in the lower level of the HUB-Robeson Center.

At the Center for Arts and Crafts, learn new artistic skills or improve current skill levels; design, create and appreciate arts, crafts and performance arts; and develop creative thinking, creative expression, and problem solving. The CFAC provides a wide variety of creative opportunities and offers relaxation and enjoyment through classes, workshops, community outreach events and exhibits.

Program Director
Stephanie Gush is a Penn State graduate with a bachelor of arts degree in Art, with an emphasis in printmaking. She has been involved with the CFAC for nineteen years, beginning as an instructor for art camps and after school art classes. She enjoys working with Penn State students to develop and promote art programs for all ages. Stephanie freelances in graphic design and illustration, paints, creates with dried gourds, enjoys hiking, and volunteers at community art events. She has experience teaching printmaking, bookmaking, drawing/painting to children and adults.

Administrative Support Assistant
Mandi Gatto is a Penn State graduate with a bachelor of arts degree in Integrative Arts, with a focus in drawing and painting. She joined the CFAC in 2006. She teaches scrapbook workshops to adults through the CFAC, and is also the Administrative Support Assistant, creating ads, maintaining email lists, and helping PSU students, staff and faculty sign up for art classes! Mandi has past experience teaching drawing/painting, pottery, and woodworking at summer camps. She enjoys doing anything crafty, including scrapbooking and card making in her free time.

Instructors
Katelyn Anthony is currently a Penn State undergraduate student studying Engineering on the path to aerospace, but originally from West Chester, PA. Art has always been a major part of her life in high school. She has been throwing for a little over three years now, and enjoys learning new ways to improve. Although new to CFAC, she looks forward to teaching others her knowledge and techniques. She has traveled to Denmark, France, and Spain, which is a huge inspiration for her work! In her free time, she loves to do anything outdoors with friends, just enjoying nature. Whether it’s backpacking to skiing, or hanging up the hammock on a nice sunny day!

Kelly Beck is a local to the State College area and is a major Community, Environment and Development B.S program at Penn State. Kelly has been working with ceramics for over two years and enjoys learning new ways to work with clay. She participates in 4-H Club, where she has held officer positions and taught baking and rabbity.

Caitlin Dillon is from Pittsburgh, PA and is currently a senior at Penn State studying Fine Arts and Advertising. She loves to paint, travel, and hike with her three sisters! She also enjoys spending time outside with her dog, Penny. Caitlin believes that her love for art started when she spent the summer at camp as a kid, and she carried that love of art with her as she instructed art camps this summer for the CFAC.

Luke Fasano is currently a double major Art Education and Ceramics at Penn State. He has been into art all his life and fell in love with pottery the first time he tried it. He really enjoys hand building and making sculptural pieces. He is excited to teach a workshop for the CFAC!

Rafael Izakov has extensive experiences in black and white, color, slide, and digital photography. He has worked as a freelance reporter and his works have been published in magazines and newspapers. Rafael has won many photo competitions and enjoys photographing people, landscapes, streets, theatre, sporting events, and travel scenes. He works as a volunteer assistant instructor for photography classes at PSU and is now focusing on digital photography with emphasis on improving photographs using new software.

Emma Karpinski is currently working towards a BS in Art Education and a BA in Arts, concentrating on Drawing & Painting. She especially enjoys watercolor painting and collage making with mixed media. She hopes that she can teach people how to find their inner artist. Emma’s hobbies outside of art making include writing, reading, and spending time with her friends and pets.

Claire Killefer is a senior at Penn State majoring in Art Education with a focus in Ceramic Arts. Clay is her favorite medium, so she is very excited to be teaching the wheel throwing ceramics class! Other than ceramics, in her free time, she enjoys cooking, drinking coffee, and pressing flowers. If she could eat one food for the rest of her life it would be pie.

Paige Landay is a senior majoring in Art Education at Penn State. She is from Moon Township, which is outside of Pittsburgh, PA. She spend part of her summer teaching art camps at the CFAC and has previous experience teaching students of various ages! Although she loves creating in all mediums, Paige enjoys drawing, painting and working with cardboard.
STAFF BIOGRAPHIES

Victoria Maglonzo is a junior at Penn State majoring in Early Childhood Education with hopes of making art and self-expression a focus in her future elementary classrooms. She has worked with numerous art-types ranging from knitting to drawing and everything in between, but her ultimate passion lies in ceramic work. With experience and awards in both wheel throwing and hand building, she is very excited to continue creating all while sharing this love with her art students.

Cadhla McDonnell is a PhD candidate at Penn State studying Sociology and Demography. She made her first quilt in 2011 and she has been hooked on sewing and quilting ever since. She loves improvisational piecing, unexpected color combinations, and hand quilting. She is originally from Ireland.

Briana Morse is originally from Naples, FL. She is a senior at Penn State and is majoring in Rehabilitation and Human Services. She recently participated in the Semester in Sea program, traveling the world and taking classes. Art has been a part of her life since she was little; she was always taking different classes such as drawing, painting, and wheel-thrown pottery. She enjoys spending time with friends and family, traveling to other countries and learning about the human body.

Sarah Nachtman is a senior at Penn State, majoring in Art Education with a minor in Art History. She is originally from State College, PA. She enjoys the fun and colorful time instructing and assisting with art camps the past two summers and teaching classes to students and faculty/staff this past fall and spring. She enjoys teaching, spending time with family and friends, and visiting new coffee shops.

Sonya Neumann has been teaching ceramics for more than fourteen years and still can’t get enough. Teaching children and adults wheel thrown and hand built ceramics is one of her most fulfilling experiences. She minored in ceramics at George Washington University. She was born in Trinidad and has traveled to Turkey, Florence, Rhodes, England and Crete.

Eridiana Perez is from Newark, NJ, and a senior at Penn State studying Animal Science. She began belly dancing at the age of 14 and her love for the art form has grown since. She is currently the Vice President of the Penn State Belly Dance Club and a member of the intermediate troupe. Her other interests include poetry, step, special effects make up and community service. She hopes that belly dance will help students embrace who they are and empower others to do the same.

Erica Parsons is a 2011 graduate of Penn State with a Bachelor of Science degree in Art Education. She has recently begun substituting teaching within the local district and her main artistic interest is in drawing and painting. She plans to go to graduate school to pursue a Master of Fine Arts degree in the near future. In her free time she enjoys camping, reading, and watching Steelers football with friends and family.
