LOCATION & PARKING

LOCATION: Center for Arts and Crafts headquarters is located in 003 Ritenour Building (Basement Level). Entrance to Ritenour faces Pollock Road. The Ceramics Studio is in LL008 HUB-Robeson Center, lower level.

PARKING: On Campus: HUB Parking Deck located next to Grange Building. $1.00/hour.

Downtown State College: College Avenue metered street parking and Pugh Street Parking Garage (5-minute walk to HUB-Robeson Center).

History:

The Center for Arts and Crafts (CFAC) has a long history of providing an artistic outlet for Penn State students, staff and faculty. It all began in the 1970s and was located on the third floor of the Hetzel Union Building (HUB). 50 years later, the Center for Arts and Crafts is now located in the lower level of the Ritenour Building and the Ceramics Studio is in the lower level of the HUB-Robeson Center.

Learn new artistic skills or improve current skill levels; design, create and appreciate arts, crafts, and performance arts; and develop creative thinking, creative expression, and problem solving. The CFAC provides a wide variety of creative opportunities and offers relaxation and enjoyment through classes, workshops, community outreach events and exhibits.

This publication is available in alternative media on request. Persons with disabilities who anticipate needing accommodations or who have questions about physical access may contact Stephanie Gush seg130@psu.edu in advance of the program. Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, or protected veteran status.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

The Sustainable Development Goals or Global Goals are a collection of 17 interlinked goals designed to be a “blueprint to achieve a better and more sustainable future for all”. The SDGs were set in 2015 by the United Nations General Assembly and are intended to be achieved by the year 2030. We are committed to creating an environmentally sustainable environment and strive to create classes and workshops that reflect these values. Please check out our workshops marked with SDG (Sustainable Development Goals). All the CFAC programs promote health & wellness and many classes and workshops use donated, found, and recyclable materials

STAFF BIOGRAPHIES

INSTRUCTORS

Sonya Aboud has been teaching ceramics for over twenty years. Teaching adults wheel thrown pottery and hand-built pottery has been fulfilling. She minored in ceramics at George Washington University in D.C. She is Trinidadian, and has traveled to England, France, Italy, Turkey, Rhodes, Crete, St. Kitts, Aruba, and other Caribbean islands.

Jack Edgar is a rising sophomore in DUS, with an interest to major in Digital Art Design at Penn State. Since the dawn of time, they have loved drawing and writing characters and stories. A general art enthusiast, they can't wait to see what everyone creates!

Emma Manwiller is a senior undergraduate student at Penn State majoring in Landscape Architecture and dual minoring in Horticulture and in Environmental Resource Management. Emma has always enjoyed making crafts and creating art. This passion has transferred to her hobbies and career interests as she hopes to continue to express herself creatively through her landscape designs and personal projects. She looks forward to sharing her artistic knowledge with other members of the Penn State community!

Kate Matteson started Irish dancing at age 5 at the Fitzpatrick School of Irish Dance. Over the years, she began to teach dancing as well and has stuck with it through college. Especially majoring in education, teaching dance is a perfect cross-over of her interests. She has taught every age of dancers from beginners to advanced dancers and has trained and danced with many professional dancers over the years.

Alece Morgan is a fourth-year student at Penn State majoring in Sociology. While she has had challenges throughout her college experience, dance has always been that safe ground for her, so she is happy to share her story with others through the art medium. She is super down to earth-- loves learning from others and her surroundings, and creativity is her mode of expression. She recently founded Penn State's first HBCU-styled majorette dance team, the Luxurious Lionesses, which has been an inspiration to black women at Penn State. She is honored to be a founder and is excited to see where the future takes them.

Royal Miller has been an experienced knitter and crocheter for 16 years, a spinner for 8 years, and a weaver for 3 years. He is the president of the Penn State Fiber Arts Club and is a part of several other Penn State clubs and organizations. He is double majoring in Public Relations and International Relations with a minor in Russian.

Lillian Nalevanko is a senior majoring in Environmental Resource Management with a focus on water resources and soil science. Her interest in pottery blossomed during a soil science class when she played in clayey soil and created a pinch pot. This fall, she is excited to have fun with clay again!

Erica Parsons is a 2011 graduate of Penn State with a Bachelor of Science in Art Education. She substitutes within the local school district and her main artistic interest is in drawing and painting. She plans to go to graduate school to pursue a Master of Fine Arts degree soon. In her free time, she enjoys camping, reading, and watching Steelers football with friends and family.

Ken Plattner has studied at the University of Maryland, in Munich, Germany and at Penn State. In 1977, he opened his own stained-glass studio on Beaver Avenue in State College. Ken began teaching stained glass for the CFAC in the late 1970's.

Dante Raso is a Penn State student majoring in Astronomy & Astrophysics as well as Fine Arts with a focus in Painting & Drawing. Although disparate disciplines, Dante always looks for ways to combine them in ways that inform each other. He grew up in Bucks County, PA. In addition, Dante enjoys playing guitar, writing music with his band, and attending local music shows.

Catherine Ryan is excited to be back for year two of teaching in the studio. She is a sophomore at Penn State who plans to major in Advertising with a minor in actual studies. A long-term goal is to be an interior design professional. She is from Chicago and has been working with clay for five years. Over the summer, she taught classes at a local studio and traveled to Asia.

Gianna Spinelli is a second year student at Penn State whose major is Elementary Education. She loves making art through different methods like performance and visual art. Gianna also loves cooking, especially tomato soup and grilled cheese, as well as baking. She can't wait to start teaching art classes!

Bronwyn Stubbs is a Psychology major in her third year at Penn State. She is a server and bartender at Café 210 and loves meeting new people! She is excited to inspire creativity through art and music as her class listens to records while painting on them!

Maggie Tracht is a junior majoring in Biology and minoring in Chemistry at Penn State. In her free time, she likes to go on walks in the Arboretum, and attend volleyball matches and gymnastics meets with her friends. She enjoys creating art in many ways, including painting, drawing, ceramics, and printmaking.

Brooke Whiteleather is a rising junior at Penn State majoring in Visual Arts and Korean Language and is head coach of the PSU Taekwondo Club. Last semester she traveled to South Korea to study the language, culture, and art scene. Her favorite mediums include watercolor, gouache, and any type of 3D media. She is super excited to instruct this fall!

Administrative staff

Stephanie Gush enjoys working with Penn State students to develop and promote art programs for all ages! She began her career with the CFAC as an instructor for youth art camps and after school art classes and continues to find excitement in creating opportunities for exploration and expression through art. She celebrates 25 years here this fall! Stephanie freelances in graphic design and illustration, paints, enjoys hiking, and volunteers in the administration of community art events. She has experience teaching printmaking, bookmaking, and drawing/painting to children and adults. She is a graduate of Penn State with a degree in Art, with an emphasis in printmaking.

Mandi Gatto is a Penn State graduate with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Integrative Arts, with a focus in drawing and painting. She joined the CFAC in 2006. She teaches a variety of craft workshops to adults through the CFAC, and is also the Administrative Support Assistant, creating ads, maintaining email lists, and helping PSU students, staff and faculty sign up for art classes. She enjoys spending time with her family and doing anything crafty, such as scrapbooking, drawing, and painting.

Operational Staff

Harrison Findley is a senior in mechanical engineering, who grew up in Fez, Morocco. On campus, he is an RA, tutor, and machine shop assistant. Additionally, he plays Club Ultimate Frisbee and is involved in a Christian fellowship. He enjoys pottery, crochet, and making things by hand.

Sydney Killebrew loves creating art with any medium she can. In her free time she likes to play video games, watch movies, and skateboard.

Alece Morgan

Maggie Riccio

Ella Templeton loves music, plants, and animals. She is studying horticulture in College of Agriculture and in her free time she likes to sew and listen to ABBA.
