- Classes and workshops are instructed by Penn State art and art education majors and local professional artists.
- Classes and workshops are non-credit and held in the Ritenour Building or HUB-Robeson Center. Adult classes are designed for Penn State college aged students and older, as well as Penn State Faculty and Staff.
- Students may be responsible for purchasing some of their own materials. Some materials will be provided. Thanks for keeping class fees low!
- The Center for Arts & Crafts (CFAC) program is a Penn State Student Activities program operated by Penn State students; serving students and the Penn State community seven days a week!
- Check out CREATIVE CRAFTS! On Friday nights during the fall and spring semester you can create a different craft each week! The program is held on the ground floor of the HUB-Robeson Center from 8:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. A valid Penn State Student ID is required to participate.

History:

The Center for Arts and Crafts (CFAC) has a long history of providing an artistic outlet for Penn State students, staff and faculty. It all began in the 1970s and was located on the third floor of the Hetzel Union Building (HUB). Approximately 40 years later, the Center for Arts and Crafts is now located in the lower level of the Ritenour Building and the Ceramics Studio is located in the lower level of the HUB-Robeson Center.

At the Center for Arts and Crafts, learn new artistic skills or improve current skill levels; design, create and appreciate arts, crafts and performance arts; and develop creative thinking, creative expression, and problem solving. The CFAC provides a wide variety of creative opportunities and offers relaxation and enjoyment through classes, workshops, community outreach events and exhibits.

STAFF BIOGRAPHIES

Program Director

Stephanie Gush enjoys working with Penn State students to develop and promote art programs for all ages! She began her career with the CFAC as an instructor for youth art camps and after school art classes and continues to find excitement in creating opportunities for exploration and expression through art. She freelances in graphic design and illustration, paints, enjoys hiking, and volunteers in the administration of community art events. She has experience teaching printmaking, bookmaking, drawing/painting to children and adults. She is a graduate of Penn State with a degree in Art, with an emphasis in printmaking.

Administrative Support Assistant

Mandi Gatto is a Penn State graduate with a bachelor of arts degree in Integrative Arts, with a focus in drawing and painting. She joined the CFAC in 2006. She teaches a variety of craft workshops to adults through the CFAC, and is also the Administrative Support Assistant, creating ads, maintaining email lists, and helping PSU students, staff and faculty sign up for art classes! Mandi has past experience teaching drawing/painting, pottery, and woodworking at summer camps. She enjoys spending time with her family and doing anything crafty, such as scrapbooking and drawing.

Instructors

Sonya Aboud has been teaching ceramics for more than fourteen years and still can't get enough. Teaching children and adults wheel thrown and hand built ceramics is one of her most fulfilling experiences. She minored in ceramics at George Washington University. She was born in Trinidad and has traveled to Turkey, Florence, Rhodes, England and Crete.

Hannah Bodnar is a senior at Penn State working on her second bachelor's degree in Middle School Education with a concentration in Math. Her first degree is in Agri-Business Management which she also earned at Penn State in 2014. Hannah has had the opportunity to work with the CFAC for the past couple of years through their summer Art Camp, Spring workshops and Late Night Crafts. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, hanging out with her cats and dabbling in various art forms such as clay, acrylic painting, and watercolor.

Melanie Devon is a junior at PSU majoring in Interdisciplinary Studio with a minor in Landscape Architecture. She has had an interest in Art and Design for most of her life but has never been confined to one specific medium as she enjoys creating both 2D and 3D art. She also enjoys working collaboratively with others to help them with their own art.

Anissa Erkert is an artist and educator with an interest in three-dimensional soft sculpture, water-based media painting, and sustainable art-making. She has years of experience as a domestic childcare provider, and as a classroom tutor and volunteer. She is a student of the Penn State Schreyer Honors College, a Paterno Fellow, and a double major in Art Education and Anthropology pursuing minors in Theatre, WGSS (Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies), and Disability Studies.

Rafael Izakov has extensive experiences in black and white, color, slide, and digital photography. He has worked as a freelance reporter and his works have been published in magazines and newspapers. Rafael has won many photo competitions and enjoys photographing people, landscapes, streets, theatre, sporting events, and travel scenes. He works as a volunteer assistant instructor for photography classes at PSU and is now focusing on digital photography with emphasis on improving photographs using new software.

Maya Marcy has a love for art that translates into everything she does! She cherishes her time in the CFAC pottery studio and hopes that she can kindle a passion for art and pottery in her students as well. Maya studies horticulture and family studies at Penn State, and has big dreams of owning her own pottery studio and greenhouse space one day.

Jesse McCreery is a junior Drawing and Painting BFA and Art Education student at Penn State. She enjoys drawing with pastels and painting in abstract color fields. This past summer she was a camp counselor and face paint artist at a local theme park. In her free time, she enjoys watching movies and playing Just Dance with her friends.

Megan McDermott is a sophomore at Penn State majoring in Communication Sciences and Disorders and minoring in Photography. In her free time, she enjoys backpacking, caving and learning American Sign Language. Pottery is one of her favorite hobbies and she is excited to share her knowledge with others!

STAFF BIOGRAPHIES

Erica Parsons is a 2011 graduate of Penn State with a Bachelor of Science degree in Art Education. She has recently begun substitute teaching within the local school district and her main artistic interest is in drawing and painting. She plans to go to graduate school to pursue a Master of Fine Arts degree in the near future. In her free time, she enjoys camping, reading, and watching Steelers football with friends and family.

Ken Plattner has studied at the University of Maryland, in Munich, Germany and at Penn State. In 1977, he opened his own stained glass studio on Beaver Avenue in State College. Ken began teaching stained glass for the CFAC in the late 1970's.

Alexander Skvortsov is a Penn State Computer Science and Math major with a love for ceramics. He has been wheel throwing for over 5 years, and teaching children's ceramics classes for 3 years. Alexander views his art as a way to creatively express himself while creating something both functional and beautiful. He enjoys sharing his interests with others through teaching. Aside from art and computer science, Alexander has interests in neuroscience, politics, philosophy, and business.

Madeline Sparkes (Mads) is a sophomore Musical Theatre major at Penn State. Originally from London, England, she has lived in the states for almost 5 years now. She loves painting, drinking tea, riding horses, doing accents and dialects, and is a huge Disney fan. She recently played 'Madame Armfeldt' in Penn State's MainStage production of "A Little Night Music" and you can often find her singing, dancing, or acting in the theatre building. Her three favorite animals are penguins, giraffes, and turtles, and she has always wanted to visit New Zealand.

Mike Theuer is a professional portrait artist, taking commissions online at MikeTheuer.com since 2007. He started teaching watercolor classes at the CFAC in 1994, and is now offering juggling classes as well. He started teaching juggling at his alma matter SUNY Binghamton in 1981.

Aubrey Westwood has been a competitive dancer since the age of 10. She is currently a first year student at Penn State in the undecided major, however, her goal is to become an interior designer. Aubrey is a member of the Orchesis Dance Company at Penn State. When she's not dancing she enjoys being with friends and family.

Seth Young graduated from Edinboro University with a Bachelors in Applied Media Arts. He attended The Governor's School for Arts in 2007 and studied four years of animation in college. He has always had a lifelong passion for comics and loves to study the different styles and techniques used in them. In his spare time, Seth is working on a comic with a collaborator in Philadelphia as well as participating in upcoming conventions.

Simon Zhang is a first-year student at Penn State studying Graphic Design. He enjoys painting, drawing, cartooning, and digital illustration. Simon is passionate about teaching, and he aspires to teach art in his mother's hometown of Shanghai someday.
