History:

The Center for Arts and Crafts (CFAC) has a long history of providing an artistic outlet for Penn State students, staff and faculty. It all began in the 1970s and was located on the third floor of the Hetzel Union Building (HUB). 50 years later, the Center for Arts and Crafts is now located in the lower level of the Ritenour Building and the Ceramics Studio is in the lower level of the HUB-Robeson Center.

Learn new artistic skills or improve current skill levels; design, create and appreciate arts, crafts, and performance arts; and develop creative thinking, creative expression, and problem solving. The CFAC provides a wide variety of creative opportunities and offers relaxation and enjoyment through classes, workshops, community outreach events and exhibits.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

The Sustainable Development Goals or Global Goals are a collection of 17 interlinked goals designed to be a “blueprint to achieve a better and more sustainable future for all”. The SDGs were set in 2015 by the United Nations General Assembly and are intended to be achieved by the year 2030. We are committed to creating an environmentally sustainable environment and strive to create classes and workshops that reflect these values. Please check out our workshops marked with SDG (Sustainable Development Goals). All the CFAC programs promote health & wellness and many classes and workshops use donated, found, and recyclable materials

STAFF BIOGRAPHIES

INSTRUCTORS

Sonya Aboud has been teaching ceramics for over twenty years. Teaching adults wheel thrown pottery and hand-built pottery has been fulfilling. She minored in ceramics at George Washington University in D.C. She is Trinidadian, and has traveled to England, France, Italy, Turkey, Rhodes, Crete, St. Kitts, Aruba, and other Caribbean islands.

Maddie Ade is a 3rd year student at Penn State, majoring in studio art with minors in art history and communications in the arts and mass media. She creates two-dimensional works in a wide range of media but specializes in oil painting.

Ashley Angstadt is a third-year ceramic BFA who has been working with clay for four years. She enjoys creating ceramic pieces on the potter's wheel and through hand building. She looks forward to sharing her skills in the studio with others who are also interested in having a unique hobby. In her free time, she loves exploring new cultures to experience other art forms. Ashley is excited for what is to come.

Nina Burgos is a junior at Penn State studying elementary and early childhood education. When she's not in class she loves to work at a local elementary after-school program. She spends her free time hiking, playing Frisbee, and reading. Her favorite kinds of art to create are drawings, collages, and prints. Nina can't wait to combine two of her interests, teaching and art, and lead a colored pencil class this semester!

Mackenzie (Miki) Boveri is a second-year student at Penn State and will be majoring in early childhood education. She enjoys drawing, painting, graphic design, and has a hobby of thrifting and up-cycling clothes. She is excited to meet new people and share her love of art.

Paige Cowperthwaite is a senior at Penn State majoring in a Bachelor's of Fine Arts - with a concentration in drawing and painting - and minoring in psychology. She has been part of the BFA in drawing and painting program for two years and spends most of her time in her studio painting the day away. She is also the president of the Painting Club affiliated with the BFA Drawing and Painting program.

Chloe Kehayas is a senior at Penn State, majoring in hospitality management. She was involved in competitive dance for most of her youth and was also a member of a pre-professional dance company. At Penn State she is a member of the Lyrical Line Dance Company. In her free time, she enjoys cooking and spending time at the Jersey Shore. Chloe is excited to share her love of dance with others this year!

Sonika Kohli is a second year student majoring in biomedical engineering at Penn State. She is from Tolland, CT and is an avid crocheter! Her favorite things to make are stuffed animals, and she is extremely excited to be a crochet instructor this semester!

Sonya Lewis is a junior majoring in meteorology with a double minor in climatology and Earth Systems at Penn State. She is the secretary for the Storm Chase Club at Penn State. She graduated from Grassfield High School in Chesapeake, VA in 2020. Sonya loves making arts and crafts, going to football games, and hanging out with her friends.

Emma Manwiller is a sophomore at Penn State earning her bachelor's degree in landscape architecture and gaining a minor in horticulture. Ever since she was a young child, Emma has always enjoyed making crafts and creating art. This passion has transferred to her hobbies and career interests, as she hopes to continue to express herself creatively through her landscape designs and personal projects. She looks forward to sharing her artistic knowledge with other members of the Penn State community!

Erica Parsons is a 2011 graduate of Penn State with a Bachelor of Science in Art Education. She substitutes within the local school district and her main artistic interest is in drawing and painting. She plans to go to graduate school to pursue a Master of Fine Arts degree soon. In her free time, she enjoys camping, reading, and watching Steelers football with friends and family.

Ken Plattner has studied at the University of Maryland, in Munich, Germany and at Penn State. In 1977, he opened his own stained-glass studio on Beaver Avenue in State College. Ken began teaching stained glass for the CFAC in the late 1970's.

Sydney Turner is a fifth year senior at Penn State double majoring in advertising and art with a minor in entrepreneurship and innovation. Born and raised in Central, PA, She is an artist, entrepreneur, and creative who works in watercolor, oil, gouache, graphite, natural dyes, and natural inks. Much of her work focuses on bringing the portraits of animals to life in watercolor, but she also is an avid plein air painter focusing on capturing the landscape and environment around her.

Elita Wadhwa is a sophomore at Penn State with an undecided major (mostly psychology). She is from India and is an international undergraduate student. She is a national record holder for the fastest recitation of Hanuman Chalisa (a Hindu hymn) by a teen. In her free time, she loves drawing, dancing, singing, and playing guitar. She loves playing with dogs and collects funds to feed stray animals in India.

Katy Ulmer is in her senior year at Penn State. She is an art education major from State College with a passion for painting. She has been instructing watercolor class at the CFAC since January 2022 and loves seeing the confidence students gain from the first class to the last class. In addition to the CFAC, she works at The Makery teaching painting and drawing. Aside from art, she is also passionate about hiking, gardening, and her dog!

Piper Van Dore is a junior undergraduate student studying marketing and pursuing a minor in architectural studies at Penn State. Starting out her college career as an architectural student, Piper has a strong background in several areas of art. Her areas of specialty include painting, printmaking, jewelry making, and sculpture. Piper is very excited to share her love of art and knowledge with others!

Operational Staff

Samantha Cox is a junior at Penn State, studying marketing in the Smeal College of Business. She participates in the Penn State American Marketing Association, as well as THON.
